| BRIEF INTRODUCTIONOF YOURSELF[max 10 sentences]                                      | I am Carlos Coronado Tejeda, an athlete of the Spanish national team in Lifesaving, the only sport that saves lives, and I was born in Aldaia (Valencia-Spain) on august 17, 2003. In my three participations with the Spanish national team, one as a junior and two as a senior, I have won 21 medals, 11 in the junior category and 10 in the senior category. Thanks to these international results, the Higher Sports Council awarded me the Olympic Medal in December 2024. At the national level, I am the Spanish champion in different events of the sports calendar and I hold multiple national records in both junior and senior categories. |                                                     |                                                                                      |
